

Information sources in case of emergency:

◆ Danger telephone (free of charge)

◆ 0800 / 112 13 13

◆ www.duisburg.de

◆ www.facebook.com/stadt.du

◆ www.twitter.com/duisburg\_de

Please note that the sirens are checked for functional efficiency several times per year through a previously announced test alarm.

Antenna 92.2 MHz

Cable 101.75 MHz

Issued by:

The city of Duisburg, The Mayor
Dezernat II, Crisis Management and Citizen Protection
Wintgensstr. 111, 47058 Duisburg

Conception and Design:

Central office, coordination public relations

Stand: 01.06.2017

Warning and information for the general public in case of

DANGER

Please keep instructions in a safe place

Sirens

The city of Duisburg disposes of a system of 75 high-performance sirens which warns the population of danger in the urban area.

Warning in the case of danger

Increasing and decreasing wailing sound for 1 minute

All-clear signal - danger is over

Continuous tone for 1 minute

Warning app NINA

The free emergency information and news app NINA by the Federal Office for Citizen Protection and Disaster Support (BBK) warns of hazardous situations across the nation but also locally. The warnings are sent directly to your smartphone. Furthermore, NINA offers event-related behaviour indications and useful emergency tips.

NINA can be downloaded free of charge for the operating systems iOS and Android. For more information, please visit

www.bbk.bund.de/NINA

It will be warned in case of

- ◆ Large fires
- ◆ Pollutant spills
- ◆ Extreme weather conditions
- ◆ Bomb disposals
- ◆ Further dangers

Behaviour advice in case of danger:

- ◆ Keep calm
- ◆ Seek buildings
- ◆ Close windows and doors
- ◆ If existent, switch off air conditioning and ventilation
- ◆ Switch on your radio and pay attention to the information
- ◆ Help children and people in need
- ◆ Keep children in schools and nurseries
- ◆ Take in pedestrians seeking help
- ◆ Inform neighbours
- ◆ Only call the police and fire brigade in case of an emergency